Jesse Magee started playing soccer at the age of six. His passion for the game of soccer started early and continues to evolve each day. He began playing soccer with AYSO in southern California. From there he joined SoCal Soccer club and played as a 4 year varsity starter for his High School team. After High School Jesse began coaching youth teams in southern California and shortly after starting his coaching career he earned a spot on his High School's coaching staff at Diamond Ranch in Pomona Ca.

Jesse enjoys living life to the fullest and being around people to share his love of soccer. Jesse supports his favorite teams Tottenham FC, Atlético de Madrid, and LAFC. He believes soccer is a great way to learn about life and enjoy the company of friends and family.
